MRS. HAWORTH DIES.

The entire community was shocked by the unexpected death of Mrs. Bilza McKinzie Haworth last Friday morning at the family residence, 1716 Michigan avenue. Mrs. Haworth had only been ill a day and was brought home from the Wheatley-Provident Hospital where she was the most efficient Chef, grew worse rapidly and in spite of the attention of physicians passed away. Mrs. Haworth was a member of the Court and Chapter of the Masonic fraternity, of the S. M. T. and Royal House and of the Court of Calanthe and her funeral was held under the auspices of these organizations, at Allen Chapel, of which she was a faithful member last Tuesday at 2:00 o'clock, after which the body was taken to Devitt, Mo., her old home for burial. She leaves to mourn her loss a devoted husband, John R. Haworth one of the officers of Allen Chapel and one of the finest men in this city; a mother, Mrs. Caroline Miles of Devitt, Mo.; a sister, Mrs. Mollie McGuire of Columbia, Mo.; a nephew, and a niece, Mrs. Nettie Bryant of Columbia, Mo., who came immediately in response to come to her bedside. The Sun extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved family in the loss of this noble woman.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of my dearest husband and children, Amos Randall, who passed away two years ago March 11, 1918. In Highland graveyard softly sleeping, Where the flowers gently wave; Lies the one I love so dearly, In his lonely, silent grave.

Oh, why did you go away and leave me,

Leave me all alone, all alone? Memory is the only thing That death can't call its own. Sadly missed by wife, Mattie L. Randall.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Mrs. Adeline Woods, who passed away three years ago March 13, 1917.

Where the snowflakes are falling, Lies the one I love so dearly; In her silent, lonely grave, Peaceful be your sleep, dear Adeline.

It is sweet to breathe your name, In life I loved you dearly, In death I do the same.

Just three years ago you passed away, How I miss you sweet Adeline, dear,

I remember all your kindness As I drop a silent tear, If I could follow you upon your voyage

Through the years My heart might cease its aching then And I would forget my tears, Although my soul is with you, dear, My human heart still aches, So I must pray, God help me hide My pain for your dear sake.

Sadly missed by son, LEROY HARRIS.
